TLC Members met at the Hali on Sunday 16th August 2020.

Unfortunately as there were less than 40 in attendance (the 25% of total membership) an official meeting was not able to be held.

See the Minutes for details.

Social Distancing at its best!

Contact for our Secretary

Fay and Rod have asked that if you wish to speak to Fay regarding Club business that you phone during business hours eg. Mon – Fri 9am – 4pm, or send her an email.

Raffle at South West Rocks

A raffle was held at SWR and the proceeds were divided between TLC and John Hunter Children's Hospital. Janis has sent these photos to show the craft equipment she has been able to purchase for the hospital with the money.

There is quite a list of Members who are not doing well health-wise at the present.

Bev Insull – had a serious car accident the day after South West Rocks and is slowly recovering.
Laurie Thomas at the time of the meeting was in hospital and very unwell.

Bill Hansell back in hospital with complications after a recent operation

Terry Fraser has a bulging disk in his back causing severe pain

Margaret Oakes has had several falls recently

Fred Pryde hoping that this week will see an operation go ahead which will relieve his constant pain.

June Webster is not 100%. She is having muscle spasms in her leg which is very painful.

Picnic Days

Members have enjoyed picnicking at Norah Head during the Covid restrictions. We have been very lucky to have good weather, and it has been an opportunity to catch up with other members. These photos were taken at the last picnic and show that we have been able to show our "social distancing." Thanks Fay and Janis for organising these picnics.

Del Rio

Hi Everyone

Just a reminder for you to make sure you bring fire wood to Del Rio, the more wood the better.

I haven't worked out anything to do as yet but over the next week I'll put my thinking cap on. I wanted to take everyone back to the farm that we went to last year but unfortunately they are closed due to Covid-19. Most of us just want to sit and relax so let's see what happens.

Rod & I are looking forward to seeing you all at Del Rio.

Cheryl and Blue

Here's a story and it is true
It's the story of Cheryl and Blue

They were both married to someone else and lived 3 doors apart
And at the time they were only friends so there was no spark

Then Blue moved on and moved around
And during this time both marriages broke down

Now it was 17 years later and Cheryl was just moping about
She wanted a big strong man to take her out

A mutual friend said I know a man who might suit you
What about that big strong handsome man named Blue

Now Cheryl didn't quite know what to do
So she called the police station and said can I talk to Blue

She left her number because Blue wasn't there

She thought maybe he'll call back if he doesn't I don't care

When she didn't receive a call she said he's a pussy or he's just weak
Then after two weeks she received a letter so mushy and sweet

They never met face to face, and for eighteen months things went on that way
They would just send a letter or phone if they had something to say

But Cheryl was hungering for the little Blue (sorry Blue)
She thought if I get hold of you, I know what I'll do

In January Blue was on his way to the Goulburn Police Academy
So he called into Cheryl's house and said are you glad to see me

Cheryl had answered the door with a fag in her mouth and a see-through nightie
She said I'm glad to see you what do you think of me

Now here stood this guy with a beard a mo and an extra pound or two
He'd been slim and clean shaven last time she saw him, but she said how are you Blue

They went into the kitchen and closed the door
For in the lounge-room people were laying all over the floor

In February Blue rang Cheryl and said would you like to go out with me
So on the 13th February they went out for dinner and a movie

When they got back to the house Cheryl said do you want to stay
Blue said he couldn't because he had his father's birthday BBQ the very next day

When he left Cheryl thought why didn't he stay
He either doesn't like me or the big fella's gay

Then in March Blue took Cheryl out for her birthday
That night the bed springs did squeak, "ah" the big fella's not gay

And then Cheryl got a transfer up the coast with her job
And to Blues delight into his house she did lob

They set up home together for just them two
But then two weeks later the kids moved in too

Then on the 29th of February 1996 Cheryl got down on one knee
She had purchased a wedding ring, and said Blue will you marry me

Blue said I love you my dear but I want you to know
The time is not right so I'll have to say no

Cheryl said I can't believe it you've stuffed the night
Don't think anything's going to be spread for you tonight

Now Cheryl was devastated, she hated his guts, but had to stay
For she was throwing Blue a surprise 50th birthday party, the very next day

Cheryl bought a ring with 56 diamonds to let blue know
That she would simply buy another one every time he said no

Then exactly four years later in 2000, she got on her knee again
Blue again said no, will you stop pestering me, I'll tell you when

So Cheryl went out and another ring she did get
And this one had 27 bigger diamonds in it

On Valentine's Day, at Lake Conjola in two thousand and four Blue said will you marry me next year but only if your sure

Cheryl to spite him so much wanted to say no
But she was all excited and said come on let's go

In 2005 they went to Canada and Alaska and in Las Vegas they wed
And it was done by an official and not by Elvis they said

Now I've added Cheryl and Blue Ducker to my friendship list
But I have to remember as Blue says "don't say our surname with a lisp"

So is there a moral to this story for you and for me
Maybe don't expect a yes when you get down on one knee

And as this story shows, it's not all over till you hear the fat lady sing
But if you feel devastated and let-down go out and buy a diamond ring
